Nandini Project Concludes with Grand Learning and Sharing Event

Ganpati Educational Society marked the successful completion of the Nandini Project with a culminating event on October 9, 2024, at Hari Om Complex, Diggal. The year-long CSR initiative, supported by Vardhman Textiles Limited, served approximately 7,000 beneficiaries across twelve gram panchayats in Ramshehr. The event was presided over by Mr. IMJS Sidhu, President of Vardhman Textiles, alongside other company officials. Dr. Roshan Lal Sharma, NGO Director, presented the project's achievements, while certificates were awarded to participants. The gathering of over 250 attendees included ICDS officials, educational leaders, and community representatives.

World Occupational Therapy Day Celebrated at Ganpati Educational Society

The Composite Regional Centre (CRC), Sundernagar, and Ganpati Educational Society, Kunihar, jointly celebrated World Occupational Therapy Day. The event drew 111 participants, including beneficiaries, parents, and community leaders. Dr. Priyadarshi Mishra from CRC delivered the keynote address, while District Welfare Officer G.S. Negi praised the organizers' efforts. Notable attendees included Special Olympics representatives and social workers affected by dwarfism. The celebration featured a Diwali crafts exhibition by differently-abled children, cultural performances, and success story presentations. World Occupational Therapy Day, initiated in 2010, promotes awareness of occupational therapy worldwide under this year's theme "Occupational Therapy for All."
